The Ontario Show Horse Classic is an EC Sanctioned Silver/Bronze competition member of Equestrian Canada 308 Legget Drive, Suite 100, Ottawa, Ontario K2K 1Y6 and is governed by the rules of EC.

(A602.2) Every class offered herein which is covered by the rules and specifications of the current rules of EC Rules and will be held and judged in accordance with the EC Rule Book all questions not covered by these rules shall be decided by the show management, whose decision will be final.

(A602.5) Any horse entered in any class at a competition may, may be selected for equine medication control testing while at the event location.

(A602.7) Per Article A801, every entry at an EC sanctioned competition shall constitute an agreement by the persons responsible that the owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver or rider and horse shall be subject to the EC constitution and all rules of EC and any additional rules set by the competition. It is the responsibility of all individuals participation in any capacity in EC sanctioned competitions to be knowledgeable regarding the EC constitution and the applicable rules of EC and the additional rules, if any, imposed by the competition. Do not participate in this EC sanctioned competition in any capacity if you do not consent to be bound by the constitution and rules of EC and any other additional rules imposed by the competition.

Equestrian Canada Statement of Principle

Equestrian Canada (EC), the national equestrian federation of Canada, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all activities under its jurisdiction.

All Persons shall be committed to:

- *upholding the welfare of the horses, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities;
- *requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect and compassion and that they never be subjected to mistreatment;
- *ensuring that all equestrians including owners, trainers and competitors or their respective agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their own horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose;
- *providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure;
- *providing current information on Code of Practice for the Care and Handling of Equines and other equine health and welfare initiatives:
- *continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare;
- *requiring owners, trainers and competitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules, and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competition; and
- *actively promoting the development and adherence of competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of the horse.

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a person, who is informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and competition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive nor inhumane.

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information contained in this edition, the information is only correct at the time of publishing.
