

Ontario Morgan Horse Club
The Ontario Morgan Horse Club Trophy
Futurity Two Year Old Championship

The 2nd oldest trophy in existence of the OMHC is the Futurity Two Year Old trophy and like the Yearling trophy, it has a lasting legacy of history behind it. The OMHC began in 1968 and the futurity was started in 1972 with presentations beginning at the Morgan show in 1973 for the yearlings. The two year old trophy began in 1974.

The inaugural winner was a filly named Adanac's Victoria. She was a chestnut filly owned her lifetime by her breeder Ralph D. Parker and died in 2007.

Adanac's Royal Tassel was the 1975 champion. She was a chestnut mare who sold to William and Evelyn Milburn. She died in 2008.

In 1976, Adanac Comtesse who won the yearling trophy a year prior was a repeat winner for The Dews.

In 1977 Lauralee Phandel was crowned champion for breeder/owner Deana Wilson. He was a breeding stallion for owner Ralph Murray and died 2010.

Chestnut Hill Elite, a tropy bay mare was the 1978 champion for The Reeves family. She would enjoy a lustrous In Hand and performance career mostly with Greg Reeves. She died 1998.

Adanac Haladan won in 1979. He was owned by David and Pam Dew and became a sire of many Morgans for their breeding program. He died in 2012.

1980 was another win for breeder Deana Wilson and Lauralee Phantasm, sired by Clear River Phantom who became a prolific sire for Ontario. Phantasm went on to also sire some nice foals for owner Marie Riordan. He was sold back to Lauralee Morgans and died 1998.

Chestnut Hill Piper bred by Jack/Kay Reeves was the 1981 winner. He unfortunately died young in 1983 and his promising career cut short.

Baronial Marquesa was the 1982 winner for the Anita Jackson. She was sold to Ken Pedlar and died young in 1985.

Chestnut Hill Julia won in 1983, another winning Morgan from the Chestnut Hill stable. By their versatile mare Aristippi and sired by Eethree Jayson, she was sold to Sharon Black.

1984 saw Sumicaro Beau Geste win for breeder Ron and Carmen McNulty. Also a yearling winner!

Chestnut Hill Sara, a daughter of Windhover Sampson and Aristippi won in 1985 for the Reeves Family and was sold to Laurie McQuade. She died 2018.

1986 was a good year for The Joyce Family when their first homebred foal won; Joland Ovation sired by Saddleback Sensation and out of Acoma Morningstar. Sensation sired a few good foals while he stood in Ontario.

Chestnut Hill Britny was our 1987 champion. Britny is owned by Sharron Easterbrook.

Sher-Kade Tyberious bred by Sylvia Stringer was the 1988 champion and a repeat winner from the year before. Ty died in 2015.

In 1989, Malloflax Majestic bred by Tom Malloy won. A son of Columar Cajun and Jazztime Holiday, he was sold to Margaret King.

1990 had no entries.

SKF Jus Kiddin was Champion in 1991, a beautiful bay filly who would go on to have a tremendous career as a hunter pleasure horse for Tina Stringer Collins. Bred by 'mom' Sylvia Stringer.

Chestnut Hill Sealect won in 1992, again a winner in the yearling category from the year before for Greg Reeves.

SKF Limited Edition was the 1993 champion for Sylvia Stringer. She was sold to Bruce Hall and then sold to Cathy Sampson and was a lovely driving horse.

Chestnut Hill Destiny was the shining star for Chestnut Hill Morgans once again and was the 1994 champion plus winning the yearling title the year before.

Another Chestnut Hill horse was the 1995 champion for Jack & Kay; Chestnut Hill Specialty.

Whistler's Endeavor won in 1996 for breeder Sally Lawing and owner Laurie Willert who had just started breeding and showing she had some nice stock. Endeavor was eventually sold to the United States and had a fabulous career as a Saddle Seat horse for Lon Frieden's grandchildren.

Malloflax Michaela was the 1997 champion for Tom Malloy and she was sold to Janis Promaine who owned throughout her lifetime.

1998 produced the winner MLM Irrestistible for Connie and David Chisholm. The mare was sold to Helen Zaikoff and produced a few foals.

SKF Reckless Rogue was the champion in 1999. A son of Aquarian Kinsman, he remained a stallion for owner Tracey Bond and sired a few foals.

No entries in 2000.

2001 saw Chestnut Hill Royal-T win and he also was a wonderful show horse, riding and driving to many championships. He was sold to Susan Van Dusen of Saskatchewan where he is loved very much!

In 2002, Malloflax Material Girl won the title for Tom Malloy. She was sold to England.

Chestnut Hill Celebrity was the 2003 winner for Jack/Kay Reeves and he was sold to Quebec.

Chestnut Hill PT Cruiser won in 2004 for Jack/Kay Reeves.

In 2005, MLM Unbelievable, a really cute typy bay mare won for David and Connie Chisholm.

P.R.'s Immortal Pegasus was the 2006 champion for Tanya Ketcheson. I believe he was sold out West.

2007 saw the filly Chestnut Hill Right On Q win for The Reeves Family who was to be the last Morgan they bred.

There were no entries/winners for 2008, 2010, 2011, 2013 or 2015.

2009 saw Cyan Star Trinity take the title for Brian and Nancy Kavanagh. He became a wonderful western pleasure mount for the family but especially Nancy!

Cyan Star Marrakesh was the champion in 2012 for owner/breeders Brian and Nancy Kavanagh. She was sold shortly afterwards to Sonya Robins who enjoys her on the trails.

In 2014, The Last Viking took the championship home for breeders Deana and Sherri Wilson who was our previous yearling winner. The Last Viking is the last son of Legacy's Viking and happily owned by Laurel Gould.

2015 saw Anita Jackson's breeding program back in the winner's circle with Baronial Blooming Star. This bay mare was sold shortly afterwards to current owner Holly Buckley.

Baronial Kaloyan for Anita Jackson won in 2016. He is a concentration of Baronial blood and Serenades Gay Ethan.

2017 saw LLF Chanel No. Five take the championship home for Sherri Wilson, Lauralee Morgans. She is lovely daughter of Cartier and Boogaloo Dancer.

In 2018, Cyan Star Morgans was back in the winner's circle with the filly Cyan Star Countess. A daughter of Get Busy and Cyan Star County Cork for owners Brian/Nancy Kavanagh.

2019 was a seriously good year for Siriously Bewitched! Brenda Casteels, breeder and owner.
